

Leadership Council

Work to make the presence of NASW felt by each member

Why Should I Become a Leadership Council Representative?

- Provide members with an opportunity to influence the pursuit of NASW-PA's mission.
- Become a trusted part of the mission to elevate the practice of social work in the Commonwealth.
- True success for NASW-PA will come when social workers feel, see, and hear NASW-PA in their communities.
- Encourage all social workers to become members of a strong local network.
- Increase efforts to unify the social work profession.

Qualifications

- Be a current member of NASW in good standing.
- Be committed to serve for one term (two consecutive years).

Duties

- Meet monthly by phone with NASW-PA staff.
- Attend NASW-PA annual conference at a reduced rate to participate in the invitation-only NASW-PA Social Work Congress.
- Organize a quarterly county event (social outing, volunteer opportunities, or CE workshop).
- Assist in organizing and attend regular division steering committee meetings to represent your county.
- Submit one article or issue of interest from the county each quarter for the Division eNewsletter.
- Attend 70% of all division monthly steering committee meetings/calls.
- Conduct outreach efforts to new, lapsed, and existing members to gain understanding of their needs or wants. Relay obtained information back to director of Membership & Outreach.

Benefits

- Eligible for mileage reimbursement as approved by division chair or chapter staff.
- Additional discount for all chapter and division continuing education credits.
- Discount on NASW-PA Conference registration (not including hotel stay).
- Access NASW-PA funding to support efforts.
- Access to NASW-PA LISTSERV. Representatives can post questions, comments, and participate in a discussion on the NASW-PA Leadership Council LISTSERV.
- Build an extensive network.
- Fine tune your leadership skills.

"Being a member of NASW strengthens the social work profession and gives workers and clients a stronger voice."
